

EXCEPTIONS TO UNIFORM REQUIREMENT

1504

(No. 87 July 2002)

Civilian attire, suitable to the occasion, is appropriate when:

- Wearing of the uniform would be unnecessarily conspicuous, e.g., at a meeting only casually related to department affairs.
- On special training assignments.
- On undercover assignments.
- Physical limitations (i.e., treatment of injury, etc.) which preclude the proper wearing of the uniform.
- Not otherwise required by Sections 1511, 1511.1 and 1511.2.

When additional types of clothing, such as raincoats, gloves, etc., must be worn with the uniform, they should be color coordinated and not have any CDF insignia or identification on them.

Substitutions for specific parts or deviations from requirements of the uniform are unacceptable without specific approval of the Director.
